Madison County Health Department

(859) 626-4263

214 Boggs Lane

Richmond, KY 40475

hands@madisoncountyhealthdept.org

HANDS is a voluntary program for first time moms and/or dads residing in Madison Co. Families begin my meeting with a HANDS parent visitor who will discuss any questions or concerns about pregnancy or a baby's first years. Based on this discussion, all families will receive information and learn about resources available in the community for new parents. Some families will receive further support through home visitation. Services can begin during pregnancy or anytime before a child is 3 months old.

The Extension Office offers a wide variety of classes and activities see their website or call them for more information. Below are a few classes provided:

Keys to Great Parenting

An educational program built around seven keys for unlocking an infant or toddler's wonderful capabilities. Based on the latest brain research, the program teaches key parenting skills that stimulate optimum development.

Grandparents as Parent (GAP)

We will have our fellowship potluck luncheon. Except for our 'Summer in the Park' series, children do not attend meetings, due to subject matter. Our parenting focus will be, "Happy Families".

Small Friends

Please join us for a healthy snack, simple craft, and playtime! Parents enjoy fellowship, grown up discussions, and parenting focus will be "Happy Families". Small Friends is a family support group for little ones from pre-natal up to their 5th birthday and for those who love them: parents, grandparents, expected parents, foster parents and "hope to" parents are also welcomed.

MOM (Mothers on a Mission)

Michelle Farmer
Red House Baptist Church
2301 Red House Road
Richmond, KY 40475

(859) 408-1132

MOM stands for “Mothers on Mission”. It is ministry of Red House Baptist Church, but welcome women of any faith or non-faith background to attend. Their mission is to provide a safe environment where moms can gather for encouragement and fellowship as they fulfill their mission at home and beyond. Formerly known as MOPS and affiliated with MOPS International, they are now excited to welcome mothers with children of all ages (not just preschoolers) and provide meetings free of charge. Childcare is provided for children ages birth to 5 years, but older children are welcome to come and find a space nearby to work or play quietly. Meetings begin with breakfast at 9 am and end at 11 am. Each month will feature a different speaker or devotional time and related activity or mission project. They cannot wait to see you there!

Early Learning Activities/Music Time (Madison County Schools)

The local public-school Family Resource Centers (FRYSC) provide early learning programs for children 0-5 yrs. of age. They sing, read stories, have “hands-on” activities and dance all while learning how to follow directions, cooperate with others and many more literacy and kindergarten readiness skills. Contact the local Madison County Family Resource Youth Service Center near you (located on page 27) for more information.

New Pathways for Fathers and Families (Fatherhood Program)

Provides job coaching, financial, relationship and parenting advice seminars for residents

Community Collaboration for Children In-Home Service Program (CCC)

CCC empowers the family unit by promoting the safety, well-being, strength and stability of children and families by teaching problem solving skills, appropriate discipline techniques, self-sufficiency, and coordinating community resources.

CCC staff provides short-term home-based intervention services from birth to age 18. Participation in the CCC Program is voluntary. Following a discussion with the referral source about the program's services, the family needs to consent to participate. Services address children's physical, mental, emotional and educational needs while providing families with the help they need to prevent removal of children from the home and move toward healthy long-term safety and stability.

The In-Home Service Specialist, together with the referral source, will work with each family to help meet their specific goals using the Family Wellness Curriculum. Intensive short-term home-based interventions are aimed at assisting families in learning to live together in an environment that is safe and nurturing. Referrals may be made by any community partner, DCBS or self-referral.

These low-cost items are perfect for budget-conscious and charitable shoppers alike.

Lifeline and Link-up Programs (Affordable Telephone Service)- Call your local telephone company

Lifeline helps with the monthly costs of telephone service. Qualified applicants will receive a credit on their monthly bill. The credit is limited to one line per household at the principle place of residence.

Link-Up Kentucky helps pay for the connection of new telephone service. If you dot already have a telephone, Link-Up can provide a reduction of up to 50% on service connection and installation charges. It may be possible to pay the remaining connection charges over a period of several months.

In Kentucky, an adult recipient of any of these programs is eligible: Medicaid, Food Stamps, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Federal Public Housing, Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP). Just call your local telephone company.

Body Recall, Inc.

590 Mt. Vernon Rd.
Berea, KY 40403

(859) 986-2181

Body Recall offers a variety of services from training information to supplies. Body Recall provides the information and materials needed to educate people about body strengthening for all ages. Body Recall's focus is on personal independence. There are no big equipment investments, and movements can be practiced at home. The Body Recall program will help you learn more about your body's mechanics while you exercise. This educational focus, combined with simple, slow and smooth exercise, can help you reclaim range of movement and make living more pleasurable. Body Recall is not a fitness franchise. In fact, it is one of the few international exercise programs that is a non-profit organization. The mission is to offer a wellness program that benefits all people and provides a higher quality of life through responsible movement that is both pain-free and possible. This mission keeps class rates very reasonable, too.
